How to get to Grenoble:

International flights to Lyon-Saint Exupéry Airport or Genève Airport (Switzerland). From both airports there are several connections by train to Grenoble train station.

From Lyon Airport it takes about 1:10 h by train (TGV) to get to Grenoble train station. For details see: en.oui.sncf/en

Furthermore, there is an express bus running regularly between Lyon Airport and Grenoble. It takes about 1:05 h. Timetable is attached. Transportation details have a look at en.oui.sncf/en

By car from Lyon Airport to Grenoble it is about 90 km and takes about one hour drive to Grenoble via A432/A48. On this route there is a toll fee. See map on the right.

From Geneve Airport the fastest train connection takes about 2:30 h by train. For Details see: www.sbb.ch/en

By car from Geneve Airport to Grenoble it is about 150 km and it takes about 1:30 h to reach Grenoble via A41. See map on the left.
How to get to the venue:

The venue at G2Elab is reachable by foot from the train station in about 20 minutes (see map on the right). Near the venue are no hotels, but plenty of them can be found in centre.

A tramway nr. B runs every few minutes connecting the venue with the train station and city centre (see map below).

Venue tram stop:
CEA - Cambridge (name on Google Maps)
Marie Louise Paris-CEA (name in local transportation network)

One-hour ticket:
1,60 Euros (ATM or Mobility points)
2,10 Euros (on the bus or by SMS - send "1H" to 93123)
