How to get to venue:

By plan:

Cambridge is within easy reach of London Heathrow, London Gatwick & London Stansted Airport.

London Stansted is the nearest international airport to Cambridge, located just 30 miles to the South of the city, with easy access by train, coach, or car (M11).

EasyJet and Ryanair fly from Stansted.

From Stansted airport by train it takes about 40 minutes to get to Cambridge. Details see <http://www.nationalexpresseastanglia.com/>

By train

There are frequent direct trains from Cambridge to London

- ❖ to King's Cross via Royston, Hitchin, Stevenage, Finsbury Park, etc.
- ❖ to Liverpool Street via Audley End, Bishop's Stortford, Harlow Town, etc.

(but note that many services stop at only a few of the intermediate stations).

Direct trains are also available to: Birmingham, Bury St Edmunds, Ely, Ipswich, King's Lynn, Leicester, Liverpool, Manchester, Newmarket, Nottingham, Norwich, Peterborough and Sheffield.

For details and journey planner see website of National Rail: <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk>.

Public Transport in Cambridge

The central drop-off point for bus services is at the city bus station on Drummer Street. Full information about bus routes and timetables is available under

<http://www.stagecoachbus.com/routemaps-cambridge.aspx>

For getting to the venue take bus line “uni4”, leave at stop “JJ Thomsen Avenue”

From the main train station use the Bus “13” from “Botanic Gardens” to “Downing College”.

By Car

From the South & from London, Cambridge is a short trip up the M11 motorway. From the north, the A1 and M1 link to the A14 dual carriageway straight to the city, and from the east and west, the A14 again takes you to Cambridge.
