There are two main stations in Valencia:

The station “Valencia - Joaquín Sorolla” is very well connected and traffics trains from Madrid, Seville etc. From this station to the venue, it will take you approximately 30-40 minutes.

Start from “Joaquin Sorolla” and take the bus line 31 in the direction of “Patacona”. Once you reach the stop “Palau de Justicia” (after approximately 9 minutes), walk over to the station “Porto de la Mar” (approximately 3 minutes) and from here there are multiple bus lines you can take to the station “Les Arts”:

Bus line 25 in the direction of “El Perelló” (approximately 4 minutes)

Bus line 24 in the direction of “El Palmar” (approximately 4 minutes)

Bus line 23 in the direction of “Forn d'Alcedo” (approximately 5 minutes)

Bus line 95 in the direction of “Marina Real” (approximately 6 minutes)

From the stop “Les Arts” it’s a 3-minute walk to the venue.

The station “Valencia Estació del Nord” is also well connected and frequented. From this station it will take you approximately 25-35 minutes to get to the venue.

Start from “Valencia Estació del Nord” and walk over to the bus stop “Marqués de Sotelo”. From there, take the bus line 81 in the direction of “Av. Blasco Ibáñez” for about 3 minutes until you reach the stop “Palau de Justicia”. Walk over to the station “Porto de la Mar” (approximately 3 minutes) and from here there are multiple bus lines you can take to the station “Les Arts”: please see above.

From the stop “Les Arts” it’s a 3-minute walk to the venue.
